Mission:

To support the development of healthy families and prevent the abuse and neglect of children and the elderly.

Goals:

- To strengthen and support the family as the foundation of a strong community.
- To improve the health and well-being of older adults.
- To seek the support of families and the community as volunteers and financial contributors in fulfilling our mission.
- To develop and provide quality services that are financially stable.
- To collaborate with other public and private organizations in the community to provide needed services and avoid duplication of services.
- To utilize all funding in a fiscally responsible and prudent manner.
